

Byron Rhodes

Dear Elector,

On the May 4th you will have the opportunity to elect a County Councillor to serve you and your village for the next 4 years.

My experience in Local Government goes back a long time: 20 years as a Parish Councillor, 14 years as a Borough Councillor on Melton including 5 years as Leader, and since 1997 your County Councillor on Leicestershire County Council.

Currently I am the Deputy Leader and lead member on the cabinet for resources and finance. My job has been to set the policies to balance the books at county hall during the years of austerity. I can report that we have been able to keep our heads above water during that time and I anticipate we shall continue to do so.

As the County Councillor for Belvoir which covers the area to the north east of Melton Mowbray, 32 villages and many farms and rural properties, I work to ensure that your concerns and interests are fully taken into account. I also ensure that the services which you rightly expect are delivered efficiently and to your expectations. If they aren't, I intervene with officers at county hall and use my influence to put matters right. Much of my work is responding to individuals as well as interest groups, including the parish councils.

My background before local government was in business. I am a widower with a supportive wider family who keep my feet on the ground. Forty six years ago I came to live in Harby where one of my grandfathers was born. I stayed because I love the community and rural life. I will always do all I can to preserve their traditions and values.

Please give me your support on May 4th and vote for me.

Best wishes
Byron Rhodes
