

First elected in 2005 to serve as a Leicestershire County Councillor, I am presently a member of LCC cabinet leading on Safer Communities, Chairing the Leicestershire Safer Communities Strategy Board & also the Chair of Leicester, Leicestershire & Rutland Police & Crime Panel.

My heart and my work are in the Leicestershire countryside and I am passionate about defending our rural lifestyle. Having lived & worked here all my life I have an understanding of what matters to residents.

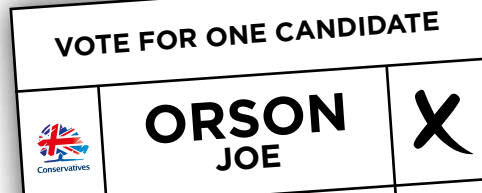

I have listened to your concerns and appreciate the value of our village bus services. I will continue to defend this vital service to our Villages. I endorse the need for High Speed Broadband across Melton Wolds Division. My support will continue to be behind this. If elected I will continue working with Parish Councils and Community Groups. I will be accessible to all, through email, text, telephone, letter, and home visits and will strive to translate residents' concerns into actions.

I will represent you with experience & integrity.

Thanks,
Joe
